Why People Choose To Be Evil Satanists, My Son

“My son, some people love Satan the Devil. Why would anyone choose to be evil? The LORD has heard your prayer. Some people are pure evil. They love the Devil out of rebellion of all that is good and right. They rebel against Me. These people should be put in prison, but instead they are allowed to roam free, to infect others with their rebellion. My son, this should not be. This is how Satan was when he was before Me. He wanted more than he could handle– the title of God. Only I can do the things that I do; no created being is authorized to take My place. They cannot handle it. Lucifer rebelled against Me and wanted more– he wanted to be like God. I cast him out of Heaven down to Earth. All I had to do was blow him out of there with My Breath. Some people want to be like him– they are full of rebellion. They choose to be evil, to be like Satan himself. In fact, all are born with the Satanic sin nature of rebellion. I came to do away with that, to make people like Christ. Not all want Me, your mother included. She wants Me not– she wants herself, her ways. She shall burn in Hell. My Satanists are like that– they want the fallen nature of self, of sin. That they want. They want Me not. Good they eschew. I Am good. They want evil by choice. They shall be damned forever because they want Me not, their hope of salvation. Some people are like that, they are pure evil. In fact, there is nothing good in man. I Am come to give them salvation, deliverance from the evil self of sin and Satan. I Am their only hope for salvation. I Am the Living God. I came to give them salvation, and that they don’t want out of pure rebellion. They reject Me. They shall be damned forever. Some people choose to serve the Antichrist, in fact there are many. Most are in Europe, and other places. Your country shall be inundated with Satanists. Those I will punish in Hell, for they willingly reject Me, want no part in My Kingdom, My son. Those I will punish forever for their rebellion. Stay with Me. I Am God. I Am your lover. I Am Love itself. Your God has spoken.”
